Internet Acceptable Usage Policy

1. Introduction

The aim of the Coláiste Bríde's Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) is to ensure that pupils and employees will benefit from learning opportunities offered by the school's Internet resources in a safe and effective manner. Internet use and access is a school resource and privilege. Therefore, if the school's AUP is not adhered to this privilege will be withdrawn and appropriate sanctions, as outlined in the AUP, will be imposed.

It is envisaged that school staff, student and parent representatives will revise the AUP as necessary. The Staff, Parents' Association, Student Council and the Board of Management, were consulted during the formation of the policy.

2. School's Strategy

The school will employ a number of strategies in order to maximise learning opportunities and reduce risks associated with the internet.

These strategies are as outlined below in the AUP.

3. General

- Filtering software and/or equivalent systems will be used in order to minimise the risk of exposure to inappropriate material.
- Students and teachers who use the internet must be aware of issues relating to internet safety.

Students will observe good 'netiquette' (i.e. etiquette on the internet) at all times and will not undertake any actions that may bring the school into disrepute.

- Students will continue to own the copyright on any work published.
- Photographs of students participating in school activities may be published on school web pages unless parents have requested in writing that this not be done.

9. Legislation

There is no specific legislation governing internet safety at school level. This is complicated by the fact that the internet functions in a global context whereas the law functions in a localised one.

The following pieces of legislation, however, have relevance to internet safety:

a) The Child Trafficking and Pornography Act, 1998.

This Act legislates against anyone who knowingly produces, prints, publishes, distributes, exports, imports, shows, possesses or sells child pornography.

b) The Interception of Postal Packets and Telecommunications Messages Regulation Act, 1993.

This Act stipulates that telecommunication messages can be intercepted for the purpose of an investigation of a serious offence.

c) The Video Recordings Act, 1989.

This prohibits the distribution of videos which contain obscene or indecent material which may lead to the depravation or corruption of the viewer.

d) The Data Protection (Amendment) Act, 2003.

This Act was passed to deal with privacy issues arising from the increasing amount of information kept on computer about individuals

10. Sanctions for Misuse

Misuse of the Internet may result in disciplinary action, including written warnings, withdrawal of access privileges and, in extreme cases suspension or expulsion. The school also reserves the right to report any illegal activities to the appropriate authorities.

11. Role of parents/guardians

It is expected that, as primary educators and protectors of their daughters/wards, parents/ guardians will inform themselves of child protection matters relating to internet safety and impress upon their daughters the need for absolute compliance with the terms of the above policy and procedures.
